Dutch International Flute Competition

General Information group accommodation Bekerhof

Address:

Bekerhof

Beekstraat 9

6013 RV Hunsel

The Netherlands

In the Group accommodation Bekerhof

- You will find the entrance by a paper on the window: Flute Competition Campus
- In the Bekerhof you will meet during the day a female operator for the catering and a house keeper for 24 hours a day.
- The facilities of the Bekerhof are simple:
 - Dormitory's and bathrooms are available for male and female separately. ○
 - The kitchen is coordinated by the female operator. ○
 - In the dining room is enough space for everybody.
 - It is possible to practice in the staying room.
- You have to bring of your own:
 - Towels. ○
 - A pillowcase, a mattress cover and a sleeping back or duvet.
 - Instead of bringing of your own, you can rent bedding, but no towels, for € 10,00. Please send a request to the competition secretary.
- Each morning from 07:30 until 10:00 am a breakfast is served and each evening from 6:30 pm a simple hot meal. If you wish vegetarian food, please send a request to the competition secretary.
- Lunches and drinks are available at the competition location but are not included.
- Please pay special attention to:
 - You can only pay in cash at the group accommodation.
 - Take good care of your properties.
 - Don't leave things of value in the group accommodation.
 - You can leave your flute and luggage in a save place at Adams Music Centre.
 - The Flute Competition organization is not responsible for any damage or lost of your properties during your stay.

More days?

- You can use the group accommodation during the days for which you have made a reservation.
- It is possible to stay longer, or to arrive earlier. If you wish to stay longer, you have to arrange and to pay the extra nights at the house keeper of the group accommodation. The group accommodation is available from Tuesday 12:00 pm until Sunday 12:00 pm.
- The group accommodation is also available for others, for example the piano players, teachers, accompanying parents and visitors of the Flute Festival.
- You can organize your wishes in advance with the competition secretary, or during your stay with the house keeper.
