Cancellation policy and payment conditions group accommodation Bekerhof

Cancellation policy: cancellation of the students' accommodation is free of charge until one week before the start of the second round.

Payment conditions: The accommodation fees must be paid a week before the begin of the second round via bank. By the treasurer's or the secretary's consent cash payment will be accepted on the day of arrival. The consent must be requested and confirmed by the treasurer or the secretary before the end of the cancellation term.

The accommodation fee will still be charged if the participant voluntarily chooses not to stay in an available bed provided by the accommodation and this booking is not cancelled within the cancellation term.

The reservation of the accommodation includes breakfast, lunch, dinner and shuttle from the accommodation to the competition premises and back. If these services are not being used participants will still be charged for such.
